

Responsibility and Accountability: Education for Parents in a Digital World

* Sister Geralyn Schmidt, SCC presenter

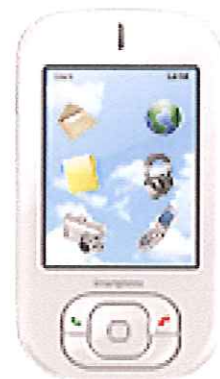

November 17, 2011 7:00-8:00 PM

Audience: Parents, Grandparents and Young Adults (over 18)

* Sister Geralyn is the Wide Area Network Coordinator for the Diocese of Harrisburg. She has been an educator for 29 years; seventeen years in middle school, eleven years in high school and one year with adults. In her current position, she is responsible for training teachers how to use technology within the classroom. She tweets, blogs, texts, and manages several wikis. She hopes to navigate social media and how to raise children that are “connected” and “plugged in” in a safe manner.
