

January 13, 2010

Friday, January 15, 2010 is an early dismissal, 11:50P.M. Students...

- Will be bussed to and from school
- Students will be served lunch
- Students may dress down – no shorts or sleeveless attire
 - long pants/jeans/sweatpants are appropriate
 - sweaters/sweatshirts/long sleeve shirts are appropriate
 - school uniforms-if you want to

No School on Monday! Celebrate Dr. King Day by doing something to serve others. Help parents/grandparents/ or babysitters at home. Write a letter to someone.

Talent Show – Check out the flyer about the talent show. Get involved!

Envirothon – Starting next week. Tuesday and Friday will be sessions next week. We will also be placing an envirothon link on for information for you to keep track of dates and times. Tuesday we have a special guest instructor coming.

BOX TOP WINNERS: 3B-These students completed their snowman first and 2nd Grade-had the highest percentage. Congratulations! Both classes win a hot chocolate and snowball party.

Catholic Schools Week: Lots of things are happening...

- Sunday, Jan 31- Open House-Celebrate our Parish
- Monday, Feb. 1- Celebrate our Community
- Tuesday, Feb. 2 – Celebrate our Students
 - Mass at 8:30 A.M.
 - Special Quiz Games in the afternoon
 - Dessert Social from 6:00-7:00 –For our Volunteers
- Wednesday, Feb. 3 – Celebrate our Nation – Hernandez Family Concert at 1:30
- Thursday, Feb. 4 – Celebrate Vocations
- Friday, Feb. 5 Celebrate our teachers, staff, volunteers, and faculty
 - Dance-a-thon 6:00-8:00 –Students and families will dance for a cause...Phone cards for veterans...

We believe in families. We want families to stay connected. Our efforts will help families be able to communicate with one another. Let's celebrate families! Come and Dance and have fun!
